

WEDDING GUIDELINES & BUILDING USAGE POLICY

The Marriage Ceremony is a Workshop Service and is one of the most sacred rites which the minister performs under the ordination and authority of the church. All wedding ceremonies performed in this church have the blessing of the church. In order that you may have a sacred and dignified wedding ceremony, you are urged to make thorough preparations, spiritual as well as temporal. The minister and staff of the First United Methodist Church of Mont Belvieu wish to extend every memorable experience to you. Therefore, serious study and careful judgments have gone into the preparation of the church's wedding policies and guidelines.

Setting the date: A wedding date will be confirmed when the minister of this church has been consulted and the officiating minister is agreed upon through the Wedding Coordinator. The exact hour of the rehearsal and wedding must be fixed at the time the Sanctuary or Chapel is reserved by deposit and placed on the church calendar.

Members & Non-members: To be considered a member, the bride-to-be, groom-to-be, parent, must be a current member of First United Methodist Church Mont Belvieu at the time the wedding is scheduled.

Special Times of the Year: Weddings are discouraged on Sundays and during Holy Week. Due to difficulties in securing adequate support staff, we generally do not schedule wedding rehearsals, weddings, or wedding receptions on the following days: New Years Day, New Years Eve, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Eve and Christmas Day.

Minister: Pastor of First Methodist Church Mont Belvieu will officiate all weddings in the Church and Chapel or will approve the use of another minister.

Rehearsals: The rehearsal should begin promptly at the scheduled time. Due to other scheduled activities, it is mandatory that the bride and groom-to-be ensure that all members of the wedding party, including ushers, are present and on time for the rehearsal. Church regulations prohibit smoking, tobacco products, alcohol or drugs on church property. No food or beverages will be allowed in the Sanctuary. Please bear in mind that the Minister and the Wedding Coordinator are in charge of the rehearsal. The rehearsal should last approximately one hour but no longer than one and one-half hours.

Personal Valuables: First United Methodist Church Mont Belvieu is not responsible for the safekeeping of the wedding party's or their personal items, such as wedding dresses, purses, jewelry, silver, glassware, etc, brought to the church for use in a wedding or reception. It is recommended that you assign a trusted friend to watch all personal belongings.

First United Methodist Church Mont Belvieu prohibits use of birdseed, rice, confetti, etc in the building or on the walkways, driveways or anywhere else on the property.

Your Wedding Coordinator

In order to insure that all ceremonies are services of worship, it is the policy of this church that the Wedding Coordinator over see all weddings held in the sanctuary and chapel. You will find that your assigned Wedding Coordinator from First United Methodist Church Mont Belvieu will be an invaluable resource to you and can be relied on to assist you in the following ways:

Planning the Music for Your Wedding

Care should be taken that music selected for your wedding be appropriate. It will be as a part of a worship service in the context of a Christian wedding ceremony. You will want to choose music, which will enhance the sanctity of the ceremony. There is a wealth of beautiful music, instrumental and vocal, that is in harmony with the wedding vows and may be performed to the glory of God. Therefore, within the ceremony itself, reverence and discretion are the principal guides in the selection of music, In regards to the church service, a holy dignity is appropriate.

Music in a wedding should direct attention to God, who sanctifies the covenant of a Christian marriage. The couple must consult with the organist and /or musician before choosing music for the service. Legible copies of selected materials may be required for approval. The Pastor and Church Musician must approve any guest musicians at least three weeks before the wedding. The organ and grand piano are only available for the Church Organist and for approved guest musicians.

Please note: It is the Bride-to-be's responsibility to furnish any and all music to the musicians if requested and well in advance. If music needs to be transcribed or transposed, additional fees will apply.

Guest Musicians, Vocalists, etc: It is necessary for the musician(s) who will take part in your wedding to be at the wedding rehearsal. The musician(s) may practice separately at their discretion an hour before and no less than thirty (30) minutes before the ceremony.

Sound Engineer

A sound Engineer will be provided for weddings held in the Sanctuary.

Our Sanctuary sound system had CD, tape playback and video capability. The church has limited recording capabilities but can, in some circumstances, provide rudimentary recordings with prior notice and if the wedding party supplies the requisite recording tape. Your wedding coordinator can communicate your wishes with the Sound Engineer and recommendations can be made.

The Florist Agreement Contract

A beautiful sanctuary, such as ours, requires very simple decorations and does not lend itself to elaborate decorating. In keeping with this conviction, the church has carefully developed this policy to guide the family and the florist in making plans for a wedding at First United Methodist Church Mont. Belvieu. We earnestly request the cooperation of the family and the florist in not making any plans regarding decorations that are not in harmony with this policy. Friends and family members are requested to observe the same rules governing the professional florist.

1. The florist is asked to introduce his/herself to the Wedding Coordinator upon arrival at the Church and request special instructions before getting started.
2. Central symbols of the Church are not to be moved, removed, nor is their view to be obstructed by flowers or other decorations. This includes furnishings and par aments. (Pulpit, Altar, Cross, Lectern, Communion Rails, etc)
3. Only silk flower petals (not fresh) can be used by the flower girl and they must be picked up by the wedding party immediately following the ceremony.
4. No tacks, pins, nails, glue, tape, etc shall be used to fasten any decorations to the furniture or building. Only wrapped wire or ribbon holders that will not mar the pew ends shall be used to fasten any decorations or bows.
5. No candles, other than "Unity Candle" will be permitted.
6. Absolutely no rice, birdseed, bubbles, etc. can be brought into the Sanctuary or Chapel.
7. The building must be left in the condition in which it was found. Each florist who does a wedding in our church should be sent a copy of these instructions by the bridal party.
8. The florist must call the Wedding Coordinator at least one week in advance of the wedding to set a time for delivery and pick-up to the church. Decorations by the florist are not to be started until the day of the ceremony, as the air conditioning will not be left on overnight to preserve the flowers /or candles.
9. The florist will be responsible for any damage done to the building or furniture by him/her employees.
10. All decorations are to be removed by the florist and/or the wedding party immediately after the service. Other than the fresh flowers, nothing under any circumstances, should be left overnight. All property of the florist must be removed within one hour after the conclusion of the ceremony.

Caterers Service Agreement Contract

It is the responsibility of the bride and groom-to-be to review these instructions with the caterer, friends and family to avoid misunderstandings regarding these established policies. The reception planner or caterer should be named at the time facilities are reserved. We reserve the right to approve only those caterers who maintain high moral and ethical standards in the conduct of their profession.

- The caterer is asked to introduce his/herself to the Wedding Coordinator upon arrival at the Church and request any special instructions before getting started. The Wedding Coordinator will be present during the rehearsal dinner/reception and will oversee kitchen use and cleaning and will open and close the building.
- Alcoholic beverages are strictly forbidden on church property. There is NO use of tobacco products allowed inside the church facilities.
- Birdseed, rice, confetti, etc. is strictly prohibited and not to be thrown in the building or on the walkways or driveways of the church facilities because of the difficulty of proper cleanup. The wedding party or its caterer will be responsible for arranging furniture settings and returning them to their original positions. Extra table/chairs may be stored in the closet in the Fellowship Hall.
- The wedding party will be responsible for all pick-up and clean-up duties. If these items are not taken care of, the deposit will not be refunded.
- The reception planner or caterer will furnish linens, silver, crystal, punch bowls, dishes, etc. as required.
- Kitchen and Fellowship Hall cleaning and straightening is the responsibility of the caterer or family. All counters cleaned thoroughly, sinks washed out, etc.
- All trash should be placed in the appropriate receptacles.
